Madam /Sir,

I most respectfully take this pleasure to inform your goodself that we are going to organize our next Monthly National Lok-Adalat on 13.08.16 regarding Bank Matter, Sec.138, N.I.Act, Recovery suits etc (pending & pre-litigation matters). I request your goodself to make use of this available opportunity to settle your disputes at the pre litigation stage.

It is pertinent to mention here that it has come up from the newspaper news that many of the banks have topped in the list of banks with maximum number of bad debt /NPA. I appeal to those banks and financial institutions to make full use of this Alternative Dispute Resolution Mechanism for the benefit of their company/ organization / institution. With this appeal I urge to your goodself to refer maximum number of P.L.Matter in our upcoming Lok-Adalat for amicable settlement and to avoid the lengthy and cumbersome and costly process of litigation.

At this juncture I must point out that we know that you are interested in settlement of disputes through Lok-Adalat and your interest seems to be maximum during the financial year ending but at that time it become difficult for us to accommodate huge number of disputes i.e. why I urge to you to make it a regular habit to participate in Monthly Lok-Adalats to avoid the year ending pressure. The mutual effort from our end as well as from yours can yield the maximum result. The people who will agree with me are requested to refer their disputes by 5th day of August, 2016 positively so that notice can be served upon the other side.

Thanking You.

Yours truly
